Message from the FOGSI President 2020

I am very ecstatic to inform that Lucknow Obs & Gynae Society is hosting 63rd AICOG from 29th January to 2nd February, 2020. As we all know that, AICOG is the highest national Gynaecologic academic platform providing an exemplary forum for the academicians to put forth their wisdom and update their expertise for better delivery of medical education, patient care and healthcare at large.

The theme chosen for the conclave are indeed very pertinent and felicitous that need to be addressed thoroughly considering the important role of other sectors in influencing the disease burden.

I am sure that the deliberations of this conference will be enlightening and enriching experience for all the partakers and this conclave will come with some important testimonials in the field of Gynaecology. Award paper presentations will provide a great opportunity for enhancing the knowledge of young minds and budding researchers.

It is noteworthy that there is irrefutable response to the conference because of the stupendous efforts of the organizing committee. Again it is my explicit delectation to invite you all to this fetching sublime megalopolis of Lucknow. While the city has an allurements that is hard to resist, Lucknow brings together the opulence of the glittering past and the simplicity of the modern city. Infact this city smells of: 'Nawab, kabab and Aadab'.

I would like to place on record my sincere appreciation and congratulations to the organizing Chairperson Dr. Chandravati, the organizing Secretary Dr. Priti Kumar and their entire team of AICOG 2020, background staff collectively responsible for organizing the said conference and making a truly memorable and successful event for the year to come.

I request you all to be a part of this scientific bonanza and enjoy the conviviality of the Lucknow team.

Lucknow ki aabo hawa har dil ko lubhati hai

Each Society adopts a PHC for safe ANC

Dear Delegates,

Greetings from the city of Lucknow

It is a proud prerogative for the Lucknow Obstetrics and Gynaecological Society to anchor the 63rd AICOG 2020 at Lucknow. This conference is being held in the city of Golden – Hearts exactly after two decades. The Gynaecologists of the city are ardently looking forward to welcome you all from across the nation and globe.

Management of Gynaecological ailments have been revolutionized in the last few decades, however the exhaustive list of unsettled inquests, squabbles suggests that a lot of discourse and debate still needs to be done across the globe. There is a need for a comprehensive resource addressing management as a team based approach. It is with this mindset that the conference with its themes- to make High risk pregnancy safe, Collaborative efforts of Gynaecologists and Oncologists, Standardize or individualise the infertility practice and Experiences vs evidences in Gynaecological surgery is the right platform to bring various stakeholders under one roof to discuss women's health in totality.

We have 13 pregress workshops, 10 parallel sessions and Hands-on training courses running at the restructured “Smriti Upvan” with its spacious lush green sprawling lawns, to impart best practices, protocols and clinical updates.

We are also contriving for Shaam–e–Awadh Ghazal night giving you the glimpses of Awadhi culture and Awadhi Cuisine to tingle your taste buds. Three days cultural events will give you the experience and glimpses of rich Mughlai and Awadhi traditions.

There will be ample transport amenities available for the delegates to commute within the city to witness various Monuments like Bada and Chhota Imambara, Rumi Darwaza, Residency, Saadat Ali Tomb, Sikandarabagh, Chhatarmanzil, Dilkusha. Delegates would also be tempted to visit historical places like Varanasi, Ayodhya, Agra, Sarnath etc.

The most meticulously organized program will be fruitless without the active participation of the delegates.

So, once again looking forward for you all to converge in Lucknow in big numbers to give us the opportunity of pampering you all with Awadhi culture.

We welcome you all with open arms to enjoy the academics and hospitality during this conference.
