

Amendments during the year 2017-18

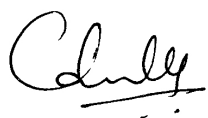

Sl No	Rules and Regulations	Existing Provisions	Amendment	Reasons
1.	Rules & Regulations: Article - No.17	Dues and Powers of the Office Bearers	To add Dues and powers of the Office Bearers of Joint Treasurer 7. The Hon. Joint Treasurer shall assist the Hon.Treasurer whenever called upon and the duties of the Hon.Treasurer shall devolve to the Joint Treasurer in the absence of the Treasurer	There is no Dues and Powers of the Joint Treasurer is mentioned
2.	Byelaw - Article 4	Election of Office Bearers (Election process) Subsection - (i) If any of the elected EC member quits the post or removed from the post, then the EC contestant, who had secured the next highest number of votes and lost election would be taken in as	(i) If any of the elected office bearers or EC members quits the post or removed from the post, then the contestant, who had secured the next highest number of votes in particular post and lost election would be taken in	The Adhoc principle to be applied for both office bearers and EC members and to define the term and role of the Adhoc member.

		Adhoc EC member for that year.	as Adhoc office bearer or EC member for that year. The adhoc member will be filling the post only for that particular term temporarily. However the Adhoc member can contest for the same or any post in the elections to be held during the next AGM.
3.	Byelaw - Article 4	New provision to include To resolve the problem of absent candidates during elections with/without an appropriate intimation letter to the President	Section L Absence of any contesting candidate without valid reason will be disqualified for the elections. The candidate should inform the President, Secretary and Election Officers with elective valid reason for his/her absence, at least one week before in writing. All Emergencies can be considered as elective valid reason for absence. However, the validity of	To resolve the problem of absent candidates during elections.

			the reason will be decided by the President & the Secretary in coordination with the Election officers. All elected nominees should be present in the AGM
4.	Byelaw - Article 4	New provision defining the election officers nominating or voting powers	The Election officers including the President (as one of the election officers) cannot nominate any candidate and cannot vote. The president will have one vote, which will be exercised in case of tie.	To resolve if Election officers can nominate or exercise their vote.
5.	Byelaw - Article 4	New provision to define number of years in EC	Section (K) After serving three years in EC as member they should move ahead to be elected to higher posts or should take a break for two or more years. After two years, they can apply for the post of EC member or any other post. It was discussed and decided that attendance of all committee members	To give opportunity and encourage other members to get into the committee in EC meetings is to be strictly enforced. Those who fail to attend meetings for three consecutive times will not be eligible to contest in the forthcoming elections.

6.	Rules and Regulation. Article No. 5	Membership New provision to define postgraduates and Fellowship	7. Post graduates and Fellowship Post Graduates are those who have completed their graduation and are pursuing their postgraduate course, whereas Students doing fellowship are those who are doing their fellowship course after completing their post graduation. They must be full members 8. Rights and Privileges of the members Sub-section 6. Post graduates cannot vote, but they can attend	To bring clarity on the voting rights for - Postgraduates and Fellowship students

			AGM and participate in discussions. Post Graduates cannot contest in elections and should not be present in the hall during elections. Students doing Fellowships enjoy all the rights of full members, being eligible to vote and to contest in the elections. To change the numbers 9. General Body 10 Executive committee
--	--	--	---	--

Dr. Chandrika Muralidhar
President

Dr. Shilpa G B
Hon.Secretary

Dr. Ashakiran T R
Hon.Treasurer